TITAN Aviation Fuels Named #1 Best Fuel Credit Card in 2026 PRASE Survey Recognized by Professional Pilots and Operators for Service, Value, and Reliability

New Bern, NC (April 17, 2026) - TITAN Aviation Fuels is proud to announce it has been named the #1 Best Aviation Fuel Credit Card in the 2026 Professional Pilot Magazine PRASE (Preferences Regarding Aviation Services and Equipment) Survey.

The annual PRASE Survey is widely regarded as the gold standard for aviation ground service providers and collects feedback from corporate flight departments, aviation managers, chief pilots, and operators worldwide.

In this year's survey, TITAN earned the top ranking among fuel credit card providers, reflecting strong performance across key categories including service quality, value for price, dependability, and customer satisfaction.

"This recognition is a direct reflection of the trust our customers place in TITAN to support their business success every day," said Steve Drzymalla, Chief Commercial Officer of TITAN Aviation Fuels. "We're honored that the TITAN payment solutions were recognized in this year's PRASE Survey, as this is an integral tool for our customers to manage their operations."

TITAN's aviation payment solutions include the Contract Fuel Card and the Multi Service® Aviation (MSA) Card offering global acceptance, flexible payment capabilities, and streamlined expense management for operators across the network.

"This recognition reinforces the value of building solutions around our customers' evolving needs," said Robbie Stallings, President of TITAN Aviation Fuels. "As the industry continues to advance, we're focused on delivering innovative, dependable tools that help operators run more efficiently and confidently wherever they fly globally."

The PRASE Survey results are based on direct input from qualified aviation professionals, evaluating providers based on real-world experience over the past year.
